WHY VISIT?

With 2,200 feet of shoreline on the main stem of the Milwaukee River, the best way to see this park is from the water. The exposed shoreline along Ehlers Park is often used as a canoe/kayak launch or access point for several organizations and groups participating in the annual "Canoe Runs."

With the recent removal of Waubeka Dam in 2004, the Milwaukee River is now free-flowing for over 15 miles from Waubeka down to Grafton. Houses appear periodically along these canoe trips, but the setting is predominantly rural and the shoreline is mostly wooded. Waubedonia Park, up river, and Tendick Nature Preserve, down river, are great landing points for canoes.

Ehlers Park is a very popular fishing and picnicking area along the Milwaukee River. The park has several grills and picnic areas. It also serves as part of the Ozaukee County Snowmobile Trail System.

THE HISTORY:

Ehlers Park is one of the smallest and oldest parks in the Ozaukee County Park System. Henry Ehler, the park's namesake, sold the approximately 10-acre property to the County in 1951 for $1,500. Since obtaining this property, the County has left it mostly undeveloped with a few exceptions. Recently, a portion of the "old" County Hwy W/ Park Road was removed and restored to natural prairie and a pedestrian trail.
